YQM's Performance Year-to-Date

The Greater Moncton Roméo LeBlanc International Airport (YQM) is pleased to announce remarkable year-to-date figures as of September 2024, highlighting significant growth in both passenger traffic and cargo movements.

Passenger Statistics:

YQM has welcomed 521,630 passengers so far this year, achieving an impressive 100.6% of the year-to-date figures recorded in 2019, pre-COVID. This reflects a notable increase of 10.7% or 50,532 additional passengers compared to the same timeframe last year.

The airport experienced its best summer on record from June to August 2024, with a total of 210,663 passengers traveling through YQM. This surge underscores the airport's robust recovery and continued appeal as a key travel hub in the region. Looking ahead, 2024 has the potential to be the best year on record for passenger traffic at YQM.

Cargo Operations:

By the end of September 2024, the airport handled 30 international cargo flights, compared to 33 for all of 2023 and YQM has established a consistent track record in domestic cargo operations. These figures indicate ongoing growth in our cargo services throughout 2024.

This prestigious recognition highlights GMIAA's commitment to reducing its carbon footprint and promoting sustainable practices within the aviation sector.

It independently assesses and recognizes the efforts of airports to manage and reduce their carbon emissions. The program provides a unique common framework and tools for active carbon management at airports with measurable results.

To obtain Level 2 (Reduction) accreditation in the Airport Carbon Accreditation Program, in addition to demonstrating a commitment to a policy focused on reducing scope 1 and 2 emissions, GMIAA showed a reduction in its emissions for the calendar year 2023 based on the rolling average of the past three years' emissions, excluding calendar year 2020.
